

Beginning on Monday August 26th, contractors for Algona Municipal Utilities will begin watermain construction along North Main Street that will require closures of Poplar Street, Locust Street, and Walnut Street at the east side of the intersection with Main Street. Main Street will remain open. The closed areas are expected to partially reopen by Wednesday, but the west-bound lanes will remain closed.